

Geschichte und Theorie im Architekturunterricht

Drittes Architekturgespräch in der Bibliothek Werner Oechslin

Freitag, 20. November 2009 bis Sonntag, 22. November 2009

Programm

Freitag, 20. November 2009

- ab 15.30 Uhr: Eintreffen
- 16.00 Uhr: Vorstellung der Gäste, Einführung in das Thema (Werner Oechslin)
- 17.00 – 19.00 Uhr: Präsentation und Gespräch von und mit H. A. Millon und S. Anderson (MIT)

Samstag, 21. November 2009

Schulen, Vermittlung

- Marina Lathouri (AA London): From Design to Theory
- Christoph Frank (Accademia di architettura, Mendrisio): Learning once more from the Holocaust: History and Theory Impacting Current Architectural Training in a Global Environment
- Lara Schrijver (Delft University of Technology): From project to foundations: exploring architectural knowledge

- Manfredo Robilant (Politecnico di Torino): Didattica e mestiere. A research project on the role of design, theory and history in the departments of architecture in Italy, 1945 to now
- Martin Tschanz (zhaw Zürich): Semper an der Fachhochschule

Architektur/Theorie und Geschichte

- Piet Lombarde (Universität Antwerpen): Theory and History of Architecture' at the Antwerp Higher Institute of Architectural Sciences
- Tomas Vlcek (MMA Prag): Education in favor of more adequate understanding of architecture
- Jan Bovelet (TU Berlin): Zur Lage der Architektur
- Paul Emmons (Washington-Alexandria Architecture Center): Categories of Knowledge: Theory, Practice, Production
- Ramla Benaissa (Philadelphia): History as criticism: Jacques-François Blondel's design pedagogy
- 18.00 Uhr: round-table

Sonntag, 22. November 2009

Theorie und Geschichte: Positionen

- Tim Gough (London): Architectural thought: history and theory entangled
- Diego Seixas Lopes (Lissabon): Aldo Rossi and Architectural Theory: Misinterpretations
- José A. Medina Murua, Carlos Naya, (Universtät Navarra): The architect's vision: an alternative to history
- Andrew Leach (University of Queensland): Manfredo Tafuri on the Problem of Architectural History, from Teorie e storia dell'architettura to the Dipartimento di storia dell'architettura at IUAV
- 11.30 Uhr: round-table